THE TREASURY SECRETARY.

The politicians are still speculating concerning the new Secretary of the Treasury, it being generally conceded that Secretary Manning's days will soon be over. The latest Washington news is to the effect that the President is credited with a desire to put a New York man at the head of the Department at all hazards. He seems unprepared, however, to repeat the mistake of a year ago and give New York two places in the Cabinet again. This being the case, it is suggested that he will put Secretary Whitney at the head of the Treasury and fill the vacancy thus created in the Navy Department by the selection of some Western man, though in so doing he might offend the seaboard States, from which, as a rule, Secretaries of the Navy have been taken; or, it is said, he might avoid violating traditions and go to the Pacific Coast for his Secretary of the Navy. There is material enough in California. Either Governor Stoneman, Colonel Flournoy, Frank G. Newlands or Mr. Delmas would be glad enough to be called into the Cabinet. It is generally conceded that the Secretary of the Treasury, whoever it is, must have the support of Samuel J. Tilden. For this reason it is believed that Assistant Secretary Fairchild and Congressman Scott stand the best chance of being chosen by the President, for both have the confidence of Tilden.

D. Z. Yost, Assistant U. S. Appraiser, at San Francisco, has returned from a visit to Washington, and when questioned by a Call reporter as to the motive of his Washington visit, reticently explained that he had gone on private business, quite extraneous to political matters. "Although," he added, "of course, I did not forget to say a good word for the boys, you know." Mr. Yost said that the appointment of Hearst was talked of in Washington, but he did not believe that Mr. Hearst would die of overwork. "The fact is," said he "the Senate does not take kindly to rich men at first sight. There is, in fact, a prejudice against them, and the presumptive opinion exists that it was their money and not their brains that put them there. They have got to make a hard fight to remove this impression."

There was filed with the Secretary of the Interior Monday a letter of 15 pages giving in detail the reasons why the President should remove Register Wheaton. The letter states that Wheaton's deputy had complained in a recent communication to the department that Wheaton was physically incapable of attending to the business and that the work of the office is being performed by subordinates, who discharge these duties in a perfunctory and negligent manner. The charges contain no reflection upon Wheaton's official integrity, but simply show his unfitness for the position and the necessity to change. The letter, it is understood, has been prepared at the suggestion of Secretary Lamar, who will forward it to the President to-morrow, accompanied by a recommendation for Wheaton's peremptory removal.

The Boston Journal says editorially: There are hardly half a dozen great cattle ranches left in California. What remain are held, not by the original proprietors, but by new men, who have changed all the methods of cattle growing. The wild mustang breed has nearly disappeared; the highbred American cattle are feeding on irrigated land and are often fattened for market by the help of alfalfa grass. Every year the grazing area of the State diminishes. It is worth more for cultivation.

Cincinnati held a city election yesterday. With six precincts of the city not heard from the majority of E-heiby (Republican) for Comptroller over Schwab (Democrat) is 7,093, that of Hess (Republican) for City Auditor over Armstrong (Democrat) is 3,415. These represent the extremes. Both branches of the Common Council and the Board of Education have a Republican majority.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

Judge Kelley Predicts that it will be Defeated.

The new tariff bill adopted by the Ways and Means Committee is variously commented upon by tariff and anti-tariff people. Judge Kelley, in an interview Monday, probably expressed the views of all the protectionists as to the effects of the bill and the prospects of its passage. He said: "The bill is skillfully designed and deliberately matured. Its purpose is to effect a fatal break in the protective system and to prepare the way for the sure overthrow of that system. The great interests which are omitted from its provisions, but which were included in the bill which Morrison sent to the Committee of Ways and Means, are as assuredly marked for early extinction as are sheep husbandry, woolen manufactures, salt and lumber, three of which are placed on the free list, and the fourth, woolen textiles, put under such rates as they cannot endure and survive."

"What is your opinion as to the prospects of the bill passing?" was asked. "The men whose capital and skill are dependent for profit and wages on the protection of our industries will not combine against their fellows at the cost of their own future prospects, and I regard the defeat of the bill as assumed by this fact."

Senator Fair and Collector Hager.

It is said that Senator Fair is doing all he can to defeat the confirmation of the nomination of John S. Hager as Collector of the Port of San Francisco. It was thought that Hager would be confirmed without doubt, although it has been stated to the Committee on Commerce that he is wholly without business experience, and that he is dictatorial and tyrannical in office; but now that Senator Fair is determined to defeat him, his prospects of going through easily and without objection are not so bright. Senator Stanford has not shown a disposition to antagonize any of the California appointments. On the contrary, he said that he should not interfere with the confirmation of any of the appointees. It is doubtful whether Fair can succeed in defeating Hager without the assistance of Stanford, and it is reasonably certain that that assistance will be wanting.

Efforts are being made by United States Treasurer Jordan to have the force in his office excepted from the rules of the Civil Service Commission. Mr. Jordan is apparently hostile to civil service reform. His report is about as far removed in tone from the recent letter of the President on the subject as well can be. In alluding to the matter he pronounced the rules, so far as his office is concerned, an outrage and an abomination. He asks that all his employees be excepted from the operation of the law, and that he be allowed to make appointments as he sees proper. To attain this end he will try to get it into the appropriation bill. The Treasurer thinks as he has to give heavy security for the proper conduct of the office he should not be hampered with the rules governing other Departments. Under the rules at present many responsible places in the Treasurer's office are already exempt from examinations, but Mr. Jordan wishes this extended to the counters and clerks.

The Carson Courier remarks:

The intimacy between this county and Ormsby is becoming altogether too notorious and disgusting to be passed without notice. Ormsby has manipulated the politics of this county for years, but now Carson lawyers even are not satisfied unless they can try a part, at least, of every law-suit begun in this county in Carson. It is about time that the lawyers of this county looked somewhere else for attorneys. It might be well to insist on having a Douglas county man for District Judge.

The Candelaria True Figure remarks: The Reno Journal has celebrated its thirtieth birthday. General Fowning, personally and through his paper, has done more for his town than any one man in the State, and the people of Reno owe it to themselves to see that his paper is well patronized.

Governor Stoneman has appointed J. C. L. Wadsworth, of San Francisco, Insurance Commissioner, for the State of California, vice Geo. A. Knight, term expired.

"601" IN MOKAW. — The Sierra Valley Leader, of last week, gives the following particulars of the Poe incident: Last Wednesday, at Beckwith, John Poe detailed a story to a Leader reporter, which he stated to be "one of the most foul and barbarous outrages ever committed in a civilized country." His story is as follows: "Last night (Tuesday) as I was sitting in my cabin near McLeers, in Mohawk valley, in company with a couple of neighbors, a lot of men came in with masks on, and put a rope as big as my arm around my neck and said that I had got to leave there by to-morrow night, or they would hang me. They jerked me around and hurt my neck and pretty near killed me."

"What had you been doing?" "Nothin'. Only mindin' my own business. You see I heard that a lot of them fellows were fixin' up to jump the North extension of the 'Valentine,' so I got in a day ahead of 'em and I guess it made 'em mad. So they fixed up to drive me off."

"Well they gave you more time to leave than you wanted." "You bet I wasn't going to stay there long. Why I'm afear'd of my life with such a bloodthirsty set. They're just as likely to kill me as not. Oh, if I'd only had a big dirk knife up my sleeve when they put that rope around my neck, wouldn't I've cut 'em up beautifully though, or if I could get my shot gun in the back room, I'd just dropped a handful of buckshot in and I'd made 'em wish they hadn't come around foolin' with an honest man who is tryin' to develop the country and get capital in to work the mines with."

"What are you going to do?" "I'm going to Reno to see a lawyer and have the whole parcel arrested. I'm goin' to arrest 'em all. Them fellows who was in the cabin without masks on are just as bad as the rest and I'm goin' to arrest 'em and then get 'em to turn states evidence. I've got the dead-wood on 'em," and he started off for the Summit muttering something about a wagon-load of hand cuffs, State's Prison, Sheriffs and law.

NORR. We have not heard any other version of the affair, but it is probable that the Mohawk boys did give him a good scare. He is a noted claim-jumper and is generally regarded as a crank and a nuisance to the community.

Mrs. SENATOR JONES IN WASHINGTON.

—The Carson Free Lance says: The wife of a U. S. Senator is a conspicuous figure in Washington. Her position politically gives her indisputed rights socially; even effecting legislation she may be of greater or less power. On Wednesday afternoon there is usually "open house" at the Senator's home. These are "swell affairs" where stranger and friend are made welcome. Just now in her new suburban home Mrs. Senator Logan assumes to lead in these receptions. The critic, ever ready to impugn the motives of the public benefactor, is unkind enough to say that these receptions are in the interest of Logan for President. Be the assertion truthful or otherwise, Mrs. Logan's addressness as a politician is well known. Mrs. Senator J. P. Jones would shrink to occupy before the nation any similar political prominence. Of ready speech in several of the modern languages, of real culture, of a sensitive womanly nature, she leads, but in a more quiet way. No duty to the public is so sacred to her as the domestic duty she maintains for the mental and moral training of her four children; yet her home at 1230 Connecticut Avenue is always open to friends, sometimes for public reception as it was a few days ago in honor of Emma Nevada. As a woman of education, refinement and shrewd worth Mrs. Jones has for years enjoyed the happy distinction of being first and foremost in Washington society circles.

COMPLIMENTARY — Gen. Kittrell was employed as counsel for the defense in the oil-baited murder trial of the People vs. Henry Hutton, which came off at San Luis Obispo last week. The following is what the Weekly Register says of the General's speech:

"On Friday morning argument commenced. District Attorney Patton opening, followed by J. N. Turner, General Kittrell, of Modesto, then began his address to the jury, and the court room being densely packed to hear the eloquent oratory of this gifted criminal practitioner. For eloquence and force, his address to the jury has never been excelled in this county. At 5 o'clock the case was given to the jury, and at 6:30 the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty."

Los Angeles.

This city is crowded beyond all precedent, and we do not wonder there is talk of building three or four more hotels. They are certainly needed, as the accommodations now are very limited. The rise and progress of Los Angeles, city and county, has been phenomenal, and there seems to be no limit to its progress and prosperity.

Brigadier-General Crook was relieved from the command of the Department of Arizona at his own request and assigned to the Department of the Platte, formerly commanded by General Howard.

BREVITIES

Windy again yesterday.

Judge Rising has gone to the Bay.

Col. Shaw came down from Virginia yesterday.

Read Nash's new price-list and profit accordingly.

The First National Bank has opened an account with Brown, Shipley & Co., London.

Prof. Joseph O'Connor is the Pacific Coast candidate for U. S. Commissioner of Education, vice General John Eaton, resigned.

Judge Thos. Wells has become a permanent resident of Carson. It is reported that he will be a candidate for District Judge or State Senator.

At the request of Senator Fair the mail service will be restored from July 1 next to two trips a week on the route from Cherry Creek to Aurum, Nevada.

Rumor has it that the Albion-Richmond suit at Eureka has been compromised, and that the Richmond has bought the Albion property and interests in Eureka Mining District.

Since Friday last the cat railroad rates have been doubled—$10 to Omaha and $65 to Boston. This is said to be owing to a reconciliation of understanding arrived at between the representatives of the Southern Pacific, Atchafson, Topinka and Santa Fe roads. The railroad war is evidently nearing its end.

A NEW VOLUME.—The Silver State entered upon its seventeenth year Monday. While it has, all things considered, a large circulation in and outside of the county, it feels the business depression which prevails in Nevada as elsewhere, and the consequent scarcity of money. It has, however, unfaltering faith in the future of the Humboldt, and believes that the time is not far distant when it will be one of the leading mining counties, as it is now one of the foremost agricultural and stock raising counties of Nevada.

COUNTY FINANCES.—The reports of the Auditor and Treasurer for the quarter ending March 31st shows that the cash on hand December 31st, 1885, was $35,632 61. The receipts for the past quarter amounted to $3,661 69, and the expenditures $22,135 02, leaving 23,299 19 in cash in the Treasury March 31st. The total liabilities of the county at that date were $7,945 53.

Truckee school for the month ending April 2d: Josie Gulling, 99 2; Katie Kinney, 99 1; Minnie Smith, 97 3; May Kinney, 95 5; Bessie Gault, 94 5; Charlie Ross, 93 1; Robbie Fraser, 91 8; Wallace Van Meter, 91; Jimmie Gault, 90 2; Vernie Fraser, 90.

A CORONER'S INQUEST.

Evidence in the Case of the Death of Joseph Perreault.

The readers of the JOURNAL will remember the notice given, of a man falling from the cars on the night of March 21st, beyond Verdi, that the body of a man was found in the Truckee river on the 3d inst., and that his remains were brought to Reno by the Coroner. From the evidence it will appear that the accident happened, and the body was found in California, and properly, the inquest should have been held in that State. A portion of the testimony was taken before the coroner on Sunday, and Monday night the passenger train was held here over an hour for the purpose of taking the testimony of the train men. The following is substantially the evidence elicited before the Coroner's jury.

A. Dawson, M. D., stated that he had examined the remains of the deceased and found two wounds. One was about an inch above the right eye and about an inch and a half in length and cut to the skull bone. The other wound was about two and a half inches above the right ear, about one and a half inches in length, and cut down to the temporal muscle. In neither case was the skull fractured. Both wounds had the appearance of having been made by some sharp instrument or sharp edge of timber or iron. He thought the wounds might have been made from falling against the timbers of a railroad bridge by falling from a train, that both wounds could have been made at the same time. He was unable to state whether or not the wounds were necessarily fatal, but blows of that character would likely cause temporary unconsciousness.

Mrs. Anna Thompson of Verdi stated that she was on the train on her way to Truckee on the night of March 21st; that she had seen the body of the deceased and identified it as that of Joseph Perreault, who got on the train at Verdi on that evening; that she saw the deceased pass through the car toward the front of the train two or three minutes before the alarm was given that a man was missing from the train; that she was in next to the last car; that she did not think there was time between the time she saw him and the alarm for him to have walked out and climbed to the top of a car, and gone forward to the baggage car; that she identified the hat found as the one worn by Perreault; that the train was not stopped until it reached Blythe, when the train was searched, and that deceased was about 31 years old.

W. G. Case stated that he was conductor on the overland passenger train on the 21st ult.; that he was in the rear car when the accident happened; that his first information was the news agent and some of the passengers told him they heard some person fall from the top of the train and that they found a hat on the platform between the two sleepers; that the person fell while crossing the bridge near Camp 24, called Camp 21 bridge in California. The timbers over the bridge are not high enough to admit of a person to pass under in a standing position; that he searched the train before reaching Blythe; that he stopped the train near Mystic and sent a man back to search; that he took up the missing man's ticket before the accident which was a round trip ticket and that the man had no occasion or right to be on the top of the cars. He identified the hat as the one worn by Perreault, who did not appear to be drunk.

E. D. Clark stated that he was a brakeman on the train; saw the missing man at the time the conductor collected his ticket in the rear car; that the man had a bottle of liquor of some kind with him and appeared as if he had taken a few drinks; did not hear him fall from the train; saw him about 15 minutes before the accident was reported; baggage men claimed they heard some one walking on the top of their car; that the train stopped at Mystic and sent the track walker back to search for the missing man.

Chas. Marston stated that he was in the car in the rear of the one from which the man fell; that he heard the noise of the fall, that the man struck the platform between the sleepers and bounced off; that he found the hat between the platforms on the coupling and identified it.

J. W. Grusford stated that he was a stake-driver, was on the train on the night of the 21st ult., saw the man supposed to be the missing man sitting on the news agent's box, saw a bottle in his pocket, did not notice that he was intoxicated, but judged that he had been drinking, and that the hat presented resembled the one the missing man wore.

H. Gregerson stated that he knew the deceased four or five months, and recognized his body; that he was one of the parties who searched for it, and was first to find it in the Truckee river, about ten or twelve feet from the shore, between three hundred and fifty and four hundred yards below the bridge, April 3d; that he saw the State line post, and found the body above it.

The Coroner's jury found that the deceased was Joseph Perreault, aged from 31 to 33 years, a native of Canada; that he came to his death on the night of March 21st, 1886, by being accidentally knocked off from the top of the passenger train.

STATE UNIVERSITY.—The JOURNAL has received the following names of those who have applied for admission into the State University up to this time: W. H. Pearson, L. M. Boston, H. Cahn, S. N. Webster, F. Bristol, N. B. Timblin, H. C. Gulling, L. V. Shaber, F. Barnes, L. M. Shaber, A. Kinkadee, A. Frey, H. M. Martin, M. M. Kinkadee, N. Leete, L. McLoth, A. Joy, L. Becker, F. Murphy, L. Joy, F. R. Comstock, I. Kline, J. M. Douche, M. Bissell, F. Norcross, J. A. Douglass, W. Boardman, M. Douglass, H. Shoemaker and F. Douglass. The above are names of persons from Virginia, Carson, Reno, Hufaker's and the valley. Others are yet to be examined, and students from a distance should put in their application soon, that they may avail themselves of the privileges of the University. Not a great many can be admitted this term, and resident students are fast filling up the institution.

THE GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT.—The Enterprise of yesterday says: Phil. Kearney Post, G. A. R., held its meeting last evening. The Post voted to attend the national encampment at San Francisco next August, and to go in a body. A uniform was also adopted for the occasion. A committee was appointed to confer with a committee from Quarter Post, of Carson, with respect to details of transportation, music, headquarters at San Francisco, etc. Arrangements were also completed for the annual ball early in May, to defray the expenses of the Memorial day exercises. At the conclusion of the regular business Colonel H. G. Shaw delivered a lecture on the campaigns of the War of the Rebellion, which was warmly received by the veterans. It was illustrated by a large sized map, drawn in oil and India ink by the speaker. The relations of the campaigns in the West to those of the east, and the results of the various battles to the general military and political ends sought, were fully explained. The lecture will shortly be repeated in public in this city and at Carson and Reno.

RENO BASE BALL.—The Enterprise says: The base ball boys at Reno had a strong base ball game at their grounds west of the public school house last Sunday. Some of the local preachers have tried to boycott the boys, as it were, by exhorting the public not to countenance them by being spectators of their Sunday games, but without success, for many of their hearers went directly from church to the base ball ground, except a few who preferred to play a rattling game of croquet all by themselves. The "Dude" nine beat the "Riverside" nine this time handsomely, but the "Tyro" nine came in afterward and beat the Dudes by a point or two. Next Saturday all three clubs propose playing a specially interesting game, for the amusement of the young ladies connected with Bishop Whitaker's Seminary.

CHURCH SOCIAL.—The ladies of the Methodist Church will hold their social at their church instead of at the parsonage, this week, on Thursday afternoon and evening, commencing in the afternoon at two o'clock. Supper will be served in the vestry from 4:30 to 7:30 and in the evening a light and musical entertainment at 7:30; admission 10 cents.

The Carson Free Lance says: Hon. M. D. Foley will be the Republican candidate for State Senator from Eureka county, and will probably be elected, as the Richmond company which is all powerful, will be back of him.

Sensor Foley has already served a full term in the State Senate, and if re-elected will be of great service to the State. He is one of the most active and faithful legislators that ever sat in that body.

IDAHO STOCK CONVENTION.

An Association Organized and Resolutions Passed.

A Shoshone correspondent of the Salt Lake Tribune gives that paper an account of the meeting of the Idaho Association of cowboys on the 1st of April saying:

A convention of the range cattlemen of this and adjoining Territories was held here to-day and organized an association to be known as the Idaho Territorial Range Cattle and Horsemen's Association. The following named gentlemen were officers of the Association, viz: Thomas Sparks, President; Wm. Burke, M. Hide and E. J. Travis Vice-Presidents; E. O. Helfrich, Treasurer; and W. C. B. Allen, Secretary. The Executive Committee consists of the following named gentlemen: Thomas Keough, S. R. Gwyn, M. Hide, Wm. Burke, Thomas Sparks, E. J. Travis, Col. E. L. Wood, J. M. Ballentine, and Col. Shoup. A resolution was adopted to petition Congress through our delegate from Idaho, to assist the Bureau of Animal Industry to pass any laws to prevent the spread of contagious diseases among cattle and horses in the northwest.

The following resolution in regard to overstocking ranges was also adopted. Whereas, there is to-day a large portion of the range country badly overcrowded and the tendency is to destroy both herds and ranges by introducing more cattle than the range will hold, therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of this association will not work at the round ups with men who have placed or may hereafter place cattle on ranges previously occupied, and where the rights of range tenure have been fully recognized. Wm. Burke, Thomas Sparks and W. C. B. Allen were appointed a committee to represent the association at the annual meeting of the Wyoming Stockgrowers' Association to be held at Cheyenne on April the 6th.

The greater portion of large stock owners of this and adjoining Territories were present, and the meeting was a decided success. The names of the officers elected are a sufficient guarantee of the success of the association.

Referring to the above Mrs. Hessel respectfully solicits a continuance of the patronage so liberally accorded to her predecessor, and assures the ladies of Reno and vicinity that her untiring efforts will be put forth to keep the business up to its former high standard. Her knowledge of the business, combined with the services of a first-class assistant, will insure perfect satisfaction at all times.
